Bristol Homecoming Parade and Fireworks

The grand finale of the Bristol Homecoming was on Saturday, July 8, 2017 beginning with the Homecoming Parade at 2pm down the main street of Bristol. Led by the Marshal's Posse and a variety of Fire Equipment from several local Departments, the parade continued with the theme of "Blast from the Past," which of course ended at dusk with the annual Fireworks event.

A number of local groups, organizations, churches, and political candidates joined the march - including the famous giant GOP Elephant for Sheriff Candidate, Fred Mock. Several other Sheriff candidates as well as Adrian Riley, a candidate for Elkhart Co. Council came out to march as well.

The 2017 Miss Bristol and Teen Queen and members of the Court rode in Cliff Yeager's horse-drawn carriage. A few popular characters like a hot dog and Slurpee cup showed, along with a giant dinosaur posed against the backdrop of the Bristol Opera House. Citizen of the Year Mike Swallow was on parade duty.

At dusk, the town was crowded with those who came to watch the popular Fireworks display, visible all over the Downtown.
