Open House: Camille's & Wood and Gage

The weekend of Nov. 17, 18, and 19, Camille's Floral and Gifts and Wood and Gage at Mario's (1801 Wood St. in Elkhart) teamed up for a fun-filled shopping time. Wood and Gage featured an All-You-Can Eat Breakfast Buffet all 3 days, while Camille's held their fantastic 20% off sale on Nov. 17, 18, 19. Shopping at both stores, you could get a card punched for a nice prize drawing. The same sale also ran the weekend before. Wood and Gage is planning Buffet Breakfasts for 3 weeks in December - and perhaps once a month after that. But in case you miss the sales, you can still find amazing gifts at both Stores - and have breakfast before you start shopping for the holidays.

It's been seven years since Tracy Camille Lane and Cindy Mannia brought together a truly breath-taking shopping experience in Bristol, Indiana at the old Yoder/Rodgers home at 502 East Vistula St. with a fascinating emporium of delightful gifts, florals and vintage heirlooms for the past five years in Bristol, Indiana. You'll soon make it your go-to place for that special something for a family member, friend, or yourself. The Floral Shop at the rear of Camille's is where wedding plans for floral designs are made by many area brides. Birthday and Special Event occasions florals, as well as funeral tributes, such as the lovely "Pages" memorial are available to order in person or on the phone for delivery. Call 574-848-4904.
