Camille's is Open: Gifts, Fun, & Flowers!

Wedding Planning for beautiful florals is in high gear now, as June is often the marriage month. Brides-to-be come on recommendations from friends who have been clients here. Camille's is where local brides know is the perfect place to plan a wedding, order flowers or pick up a bouquet on the spur of the moment. Gifts galore await eager shoppers for birthdays and other events, as well as shopping for a new outfit or purse or accessory for themselves. Stop in soon - you know you've missed being able to shop at Camille's and are anxious to start. It's nearly ten years since Tracy Camille Lane and Cindy Mannia brought together a truly breath-taking shopping experience in Bristol, Indiana at the old Yoder/Rodgers home at 502 East Vistula St. with a fascinating emporium of delightful gifts, florals and vintage heirlooms in Bristol, Indiana. You'll soon make it your go-to place for that special something for a family member, friend, or yourself. The Floral Shop at the rear of Camille's is where wedding plans for floral designs are made by many area brides. Birthday and Special Event occasions florals, as well as funeral tributes, such as the lovely "Pages" memorial are available to order in person or on the phone for delivery. Call 574-848-4904.
