

Don't Miss all the other Photos on Flickr - Click here to View

Last Tea: Murphy Guest House Tea Room 6-3-17

Debra Frank, wife of Roy Frank of Hardings in Bristol had the honor of inviting her daughter Wendy and friend Sherri Jackson to the last tea at this favorite Bristol Indiana destination. Owner Ann Andre has sold the Murphy Guest House Bed and Breakfast which will become a private home. Debra and her husband had spent several weekends here, and their daughter had wanted to as well, but this tea was the last chance to enjoy a visit here. Ann served blueberry-raspberry scones, her signature lavender bread with lemon curd and Devonshire cream with Chocolate Carmel and Marseille Chive Tea. The soup was Italian Wedding with chicken salad, ham salad and cucumber finger sandwiches. The salad was mixed greens, dried cherries, goat cheese and Marie's white balsamic shallot vinaigrette dressing with a Mexican quiche. Dessert was raspberry cheesecake, white peanut butter fudge, blackberry thumb cookies, banana blonde brownies, strawberries dipped in chocolate and chocolate mousse. The Murphy Bed and Breakfast is now closed, and an estate sale will be held on June 29/July 1, 2017. Here is the link: http://www.estatesale.com/feed/es_c1003.php?es_id=1087&id=125413&feed_type=100&es_cfid=79

Just the Facts:
 Andre has operated the Murphy Guest House, the 1875 Amish Country Inn, in Bristol Indiana since 2003.
 The Teas and Luncheons were popular events.
 The bed and breakfast was a favorite place for
 • return visitors .
 The Murphy Guest House is closed now and has been sold to be a private home. Ann Andre will be moving in July 2017 to Georgia to live close to her oldest son and grandchildren.