

Olivia's Graduation Party on Sat. 15, 2019

A number of friends and family gathered to celebrate Olivia Maack's graduation at the home of her grandparents, Betty and Steve Arnold in Bristol. Her parents, Jessica and Chuck Maack were on hand to greet those who came out in the rain to wish Olivia well. A tent outside sheltered other guests from the persistent rain. The decor celebrated Olivia from babyhood through the years to her school career in swimming and diving and also featured her older brother. An impressive array of the many medals and awards Olivia had received were on display. Many of Olivia's classmates joined in to mark the end of their local schooldays. They, as will Olivia, will soon be leaving to attend college away from home.

A delicious taco buffet was enjoyed by all, topped off with blue-frosted cupcakes. Her family will miss seeing her everyday, but are thrilled to see her going off to start her new life as a college student.
