This Week in Bristol Indiana - 10-5-17

NEW Bristol Indiana Library HISTORY ROOM. Director Carol Anderson and her staff have created a extensive history area out of an un-utilized room. It contains their collection of Bristol history books and photos. Come and see great resources all together and use the room for your research.

The new Humane Society of Elkhart County (HSEC) building is complete, and will be open on Monday, Oct. 9, 2017. All hands were on deck over the weekend of Oct. 7 & 8 to clean equipment and move all the animals, equipment and furniture, like these ladies on the scrubbing detail. A public Grand Opening will be held later and announced.

The Bristol on the River group held their latest meeting on Monday, October 3, 2017 at the Bristol Library. They have established their official meeting date for 1st Tuesday of each month at the Library at 6pm. They discussed current issues like the design of a new logo for a flyer, and details for their group to assist the Parks and Police & Fire for the Fall Party.
