This Week in Bristol Indiana - 12-9-17

Sponsored by the Bristol on the River Group and the Bristol Indiana Parks, the Bristol Tree decorating and lighting was held in Memorial Park (corner of SR 15 & SR 120) on Saturday, Dec. 9, 2017 – with decorating beginning at 4:30 pm and Tree lighting afterward. The Homecoming Queen and Teen Queen helping with the decorating which included the snowflakes made by the Bristol Library crafters.

The Bristol United Methodist Church's Open Door Center just across the street from the Memorial Park was open as a warming area on the chilly afternoon. Santa arrived on the Bristol Fire Dept. truck and posed with families. A display was made and placed in the Park by Susie Meeks-Wade to hold all the non-perishable foods that were brought for the Bristol Pantry.

After kids met Santa, many headed for the Open Door warming center to have hot chocolate and cookies until the tree lighting. The Tree was donated by Eby's Pines.
